“

Five Stone has not only made me a better professional, but a better person. Character is something I value in others, so a company that cares about my character and will invest in me as a person, fuels my belief that Five Stone will always surpass any organization. We are not just a number here. We matter.

Welcome,

Thank you for considering joining our amazing team of world class people. We appreciate your time and are grateful for the opportunity to learn more about you.

Five Stone has built a unique organization and environment, where our associates realize significance through furthering the mission of making a positive impact in people's lives.

Our accolades as an outstanding workplace, include multiple 'Best Place to Work' awards, 100% engaged associates, world-class net promoter scores, and giving 33% of profits to charities. These recognitions are a testament to our culture, which is anchored in our foundational values: Professionalism, Selflessness, Effectiveness, Commitment, and Growth. While we are in the top 1% of organizations worldwide, we're not for everyone. Our staff are expected to align with our core values as well as contribute to a positive culture, have an ownership mentality, and avoid drama.

Our team members enjoy generous paid time off packages, flexible work schedules, and remote work options that foster a healthy work/life balance. We provide training and development programs, community service opportunities and strong management who lead through encouragement.

We retain 95% of our staff each year through the above-referenced intangible benefits along with highly competitive compensation packages and benefits that include profit sharing and performance bonuses. Our average team member has been with Five Stone for a remarkable 8 years, whereas the national average is 2 years. Our associates are not just employees; they are integral members of the Five Stone family.

The only limiting factor to what you can accomplish in your career at Five Stone is you. We're committed to recognizing and cultivating talent. We'll promote anyone to any position regardless of tenure if they will be successful in the role.

We look forward to learning more about you and determining if Five Stone is the perfect environment for your talents to thrive.
